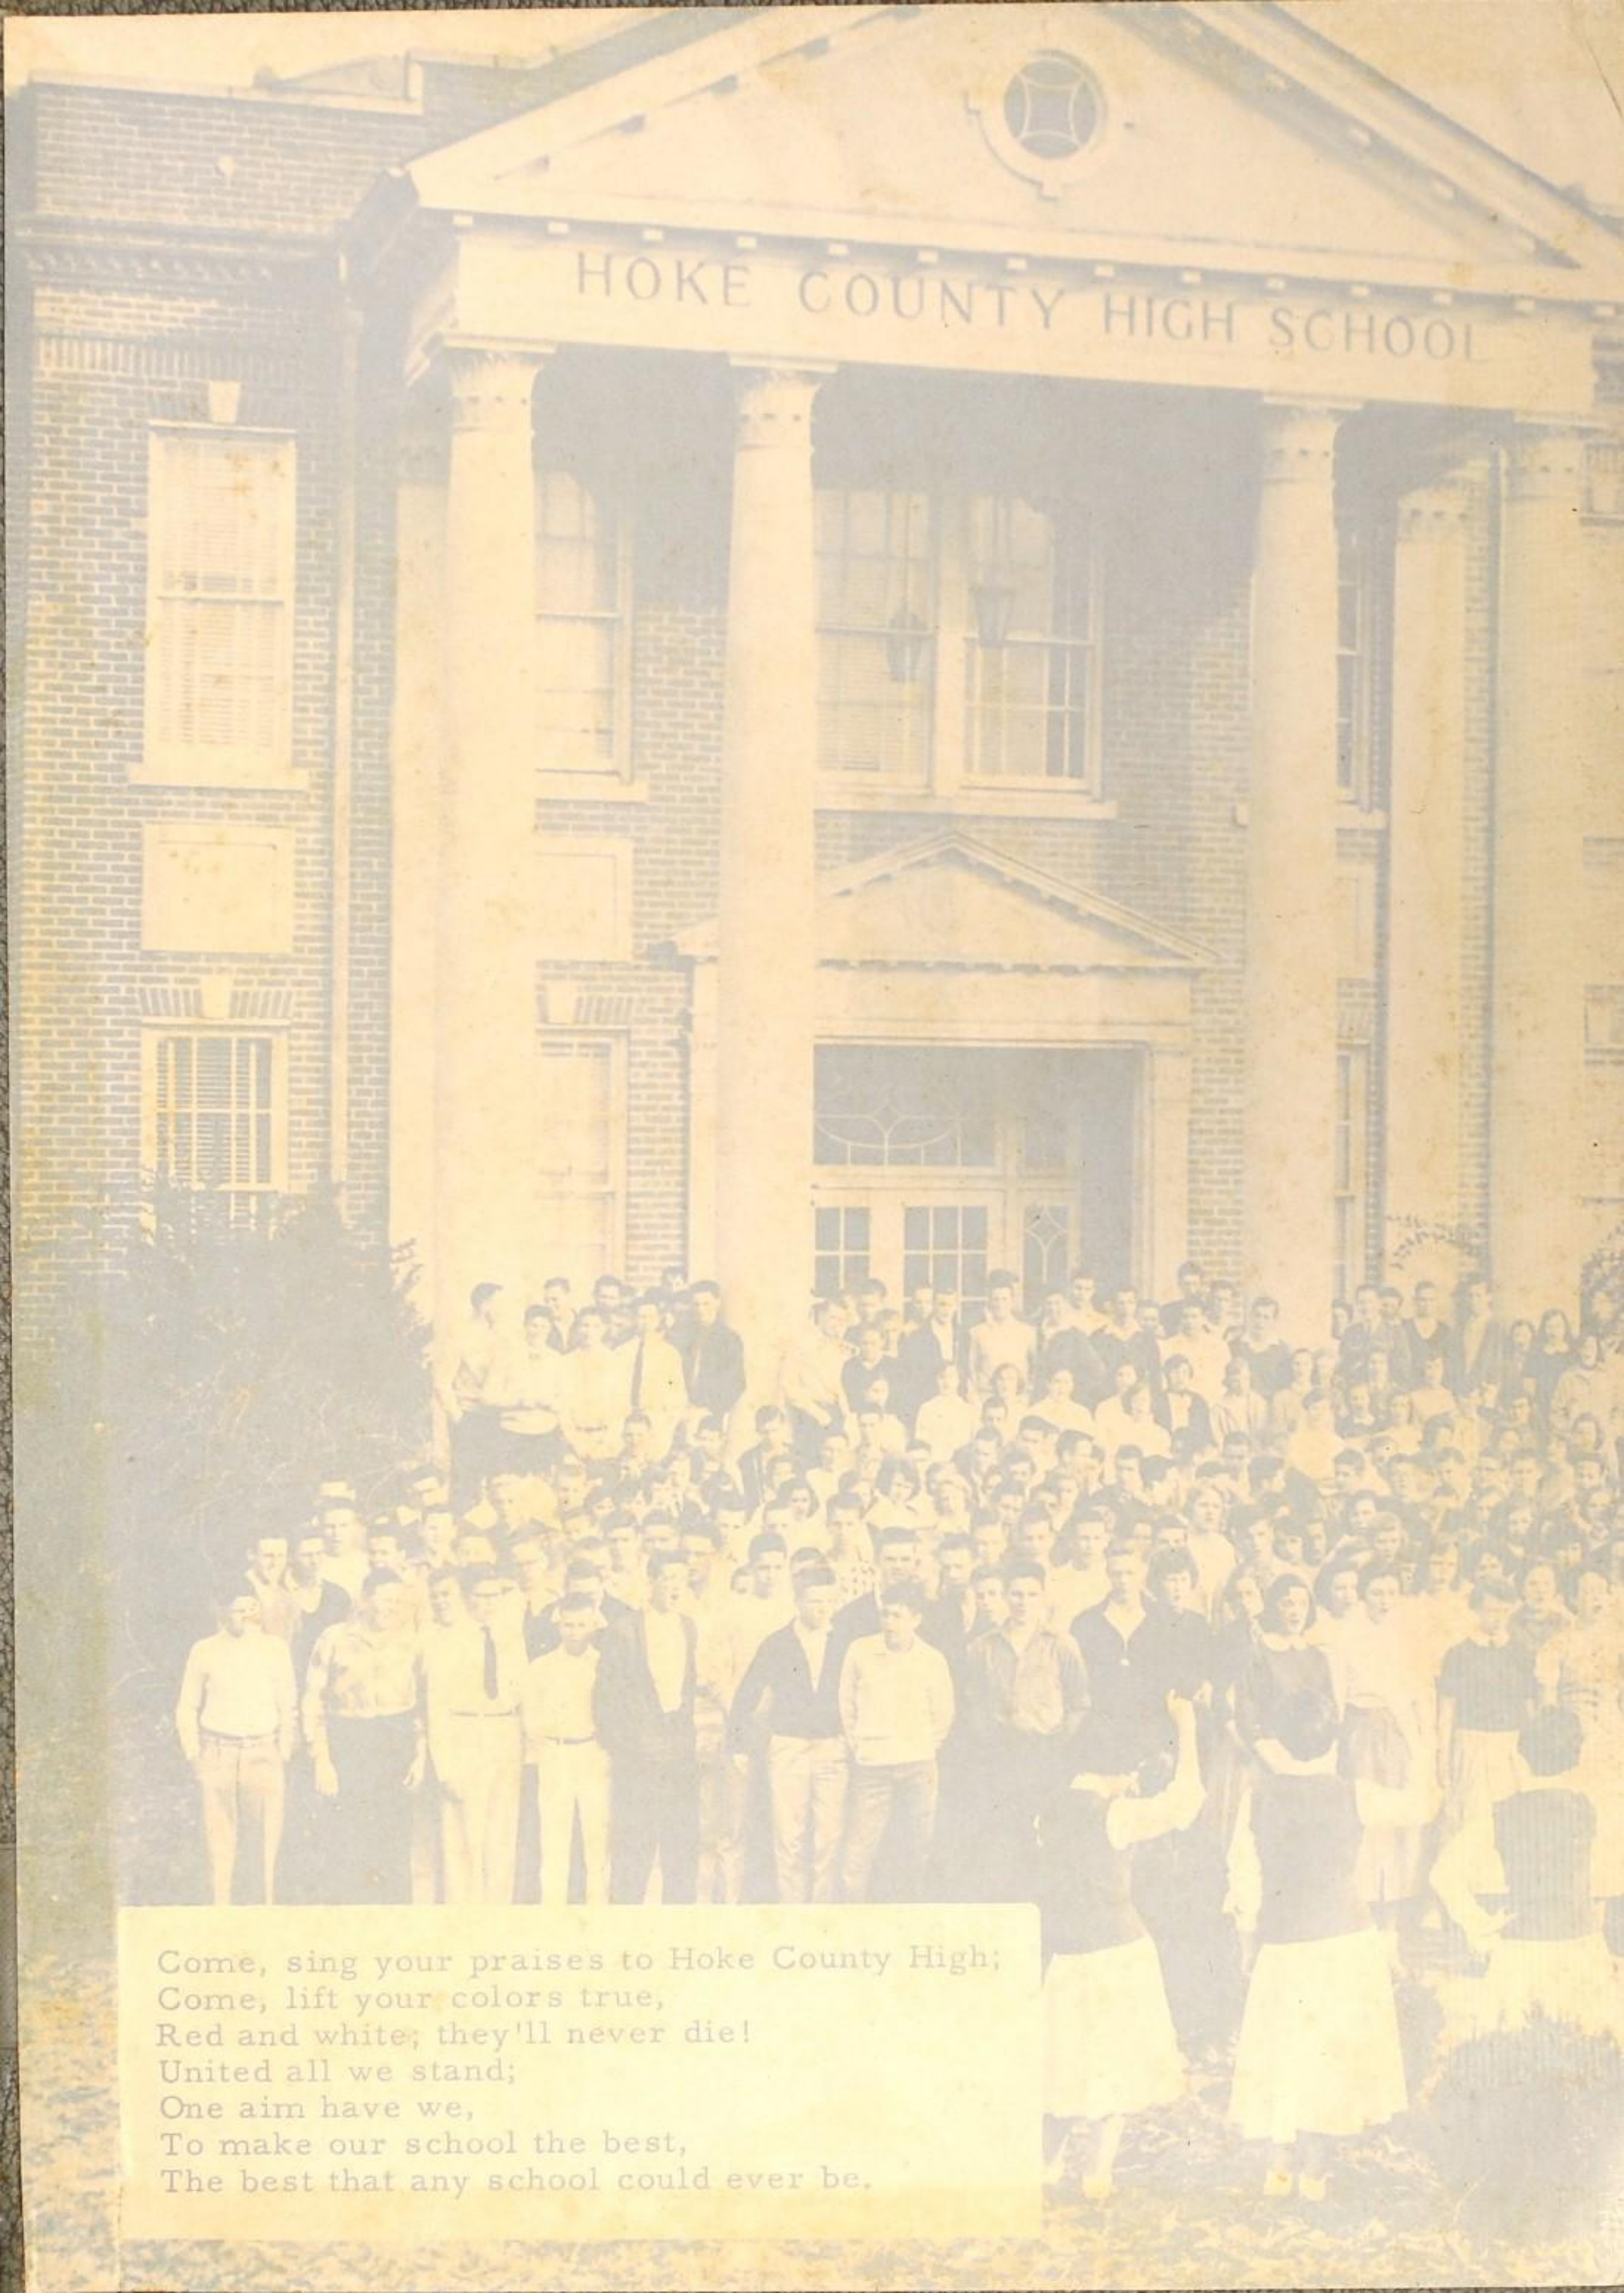
The Ekoh



Come, sing your praises to Hoke County High;
Come, lift your colors true,
Red and white; they'll never die!
United all we stand;
One aim have we,
To make our school the best,
The best that any school could ever be.

FOREWORD

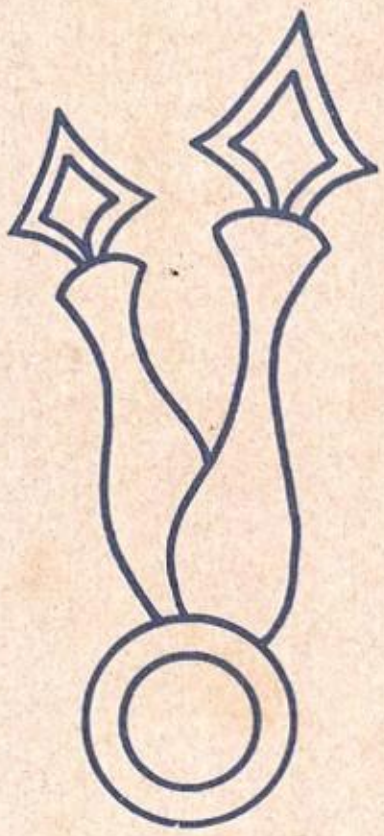
"One life, - a little gleam of time between two eternities."----Thomas Carlyle

"Nae man can tether time or tide."----Robert Burns

"Even such is time that takes in trust our youth, our joys, our all we have----Sir Walter Raleigh

"Time's hours gallop down the lessening hill."----Le Gallienne

In these quotations, the poets and philosophers have provided us with our theme for the 1956 Ekoh. Impressed with the fact that time fleets away, we have sought herein to capture for future years the memory of your days and hours spent at Hoke County High School. In picture and in print we have endeavored to portray the events of one year of your life, so that "Time will run back and fetch the age of gold," as----------



Some people may call it study

This looks like the real stuff.

WE STUDY...

SENIORS

To us, the class of 1956, our high school years, spent at H. H. S., have been four of the most unforgettable years of our lives. Here we have shared some of our happiest and some of our most disappointing experiences. There have been smiles and tears, friends and fun that have become a part of us and that we shall never forget.

There we were that September morning in 1952---high school freshmen---a dream come true! It wasn't long before the newness of the red brick building and the upperclassmen wore off, and we found ourselves really a part of things. We elected Kenneth Culbreth, who led us successfully through our freshman year, as class president. We had fun that year. Among our most vivid memories were the football and basketball games where we cheered ourselves hoarse for "our team", the Homecoming dance, where some of the girls in our class danced to the strains of the theme song, "Stardust" to entertain the queen, and the members of our class who achieved recognition as freshmen. Lacy made the first string in football; Janet, in basketball. Patsy represented the freshmen class in the Homecoming court. We remember the band and glee club concerts, the clubs and teams we belonged to, the dances and parties we attended, and realize now that we weren't quite as important as we believed ourselves to be.

When we returned the next year as sophomores, we were saddened by the loss of our classmates, Robert Easterling and Robert Neill Currie, who had been killed during the summer. But, somehow, as we near the end of our senior year, we cannot help feeling that Robert and Robert Neill are graduating with us.

Ernest Bracey was elected sophomore class president; Kenneth, treasurer of the Student Council; Patsy, a cheerleader, the first one from our class. Many of the boys from our class were initiated into the Key Club on a cold night which I'm sure they will never forget.

SENIORS

And remember how nervous we all were on the day the Beta Club members were tapped? As the time for Junior-Senior rolled around, remember how longingly we sophomores watched the juniors and seniors and listened as they talked of the dance, knowing that soon it would be our turn? At graduation that year Lacy received a sportsmanship award.

Then, before we knew it, we were juniors. We elected Jimmy Hendley as president of the junior class to guide us through our first year as upperclassmen. Really in the swing of things, many members of our class were elected to important and responsible offices in the Student Council, Beta Club, Key Club,

Journalism Club, and the Ekoh Staff. When we had our magazine sales to raise money for the Junior-Senior, Mrs. Cole's home room sold the most and was treated to a party by Miss Pegg's class. Another unforgettable event was the Junior class play, "Taming the Brat", from which the profit went to pay for the new piano. We had never realized before what talented actors and actresses were a part of our class. It was fun, wasn't it? Some of the other high spots of the Junior year were Beta Club initiation, world peace essays, homecoming, with Dayne Capps as our candidate for queen, Frankie's election as cheerleader, band and glee club concerts, class rings, and finally Junior-Senior. Was there ever a Junior-Senior to compare with ours? We took the seniors to Paris with our theme, "April in Paris." The decorating committee worked hard to turn the gym into "une rue de Paris", complete with sidewalk cafes, French chefs, and even the Eiffel Tower. Then came graduation with June winning a history award. We were sad to see these seniors leave. These were our friends, members of our sister class, who had helped us through the hardest parts of our high school days.

Seniors - at last! Remember how, when we were freshmen, we used to look up to the seniors, the "big wheels" in school. Now we were the "wheels", but, somehow, we didn't feel big and important, as we had thought we would. We were still small and young with a world before us to conquer. Lacy Koonce, as president, was chosen to lead us through our final and most important year. Kenneth was elected president of the Student Council and Key Club; Lillian, president of the Beta Club and Cheerleader; Janet, president of the F. H. A.; June, editor of the Ekoh. We chose our mascots, Dianne Upchurch and Brian Whittaker, and senior superlatives. Norma Jean, our Homecoming queen, looked lovely to the seniors as she sat on the huge, leaf-shaped throne

Homecoming, with the theme, "Autumn Leaves", was one of the most beautiful and unforgettable that we have ever attended, which was proper since it was our last...Our last Homecoming dance, our last football game and touch down, our last Hoke High Lights, or last exams, our last never-to-be-forgotten Junior-Senior, and now our last annuals.

As we near graduation, as we part, perhaps never to meet again, let us never forget these four years in which we were all a part, an important part, of each other's lives. You have been told that your high school years are the best years of your lives, and we can say from experience, they really are!
